Tenements Weakened by Excavations in Next Lot Threaten to Fail.

Five hundred tenants in the tene-Nos. 422 and 434 East Eleventh last night by Captain Shaw and the reserves of the East Fifth street police station after Building Commissioner Mitchell had declared the structures in danger of collapsing.

Workmen have been excavating for the foundation of another tenement on the men stopped work last night several cracks appeared in the walls and the plastering began to fall. One of the tenants notified Sergt. Boyle. After a hurried inspection he called up the Building Department.

The police had to literally drive the seventy-two Italian families into the street. The majority insisted on taking much of their personal belongings with them. It took the police nearly two hours to clear the buildings.

The walls continued to bulge and workmen from the Building Department hurriedly shored them up. Poilcemen were stationed in front of the houses to warn pedestrians and prevent heavy trucks from passing along the street A guard rail was also placed around
